Gisborne BPW February Newsletter

Sherryll's Musings

Welcome to our first Newsletter for 2017.

It's going to be another busy year with BPW and we have several pressing issues that we need to deal with.

Firstly – Fundraising for Conference 2017 in Hawkes Bay.

Marlene Orchiston is organising a breakfast at her home this Sunday from 9 to 11. Tickets are $20 and we still have some left. Check for further details in this newsletter.

Secondly – And of some URGENCY - the Presidency for BPW 2018. As I mentioned at our last meeting, I will NOT be standing for President next year. This means that we need to all take responsibility to look for an appropriate candidate. To give them the opportunity of working with myself and the Executive during this year, we need someone now. If you are interested and need some coaching or support in the role, as Immediate Past President I will fully support you. It is not a difficult role, but it does take some time management, especially if you are working. Please email me or speak to any of the Executive if you are interested or have any questions.

You will all have received your invitation to our International Women's Day Event at the Marina
